The Presentation of Children and the Dedication of Parents

Introductory Remarks

Commitments by the Parents

Pastor: Reed and Jennifer, you have brought your child to be blessed today. We are calling you to commit yourselves to raising Annalynn in the faith by making these promises:

Do you recognize and solemnly declare your dependence upon the Almighty God for the wisdom, help and blessing you will need to guide and nurture your child?

Parents: We do.

Parents: We, as Annalynn's parents, commit ourselves to instruct our child in the teachings of Jesus Christ, to read the Word of God regularly, and to pray both with and for our child. We intend to raise up our child in the church family, with the prayer that, in due time, our child may receive Jesus Christ as his personal Saviour and Lord.

Pastor: The Promise of the Congregation

Beloved in the Lord, do you receive this child in Christ's Name as we have been received, promising to support her in constant love, wholesome example, Christian teaching, and faithful prayer as you are able? Are you willing to accept so great a responsibility?

Congregation: We are willing, God being our helper.

Prayer (In Unison)

Loving Father, we your people pray for these parents and this child. Guide them in the ways of truth; sustain them in times of difficulty, and bless them with the joys of life in Christ. We commit ourselves to the Christian nurture of all the children you have entrusted to our care. We offer you ourselves, our time and our gifts in this ministry. In the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.
